

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY EVE., NOV. 5. 1884

What do you think of the Irish vote now. Do you know of any straighter Democrats?

The vote of Huntington Township, Brown County, Ohio, shows a Republican gain of seven votes.

The Democrats have a majority of seventy-seven in the present National House of Representatives.

An enterprising firm has opened a coal mine in the heart of the town of Hawesville, and within three hundred yards of the court house. Coal is delivered in any part of the town at 5 cents per bushel.

The very latest rumor about General Gordon is that he was killed in front of Khartoum as he was returning from a successful sortie to Berber for provisions. Khartoum, in his absence, had gone over to the enemy.

A SYNDICATE of good lives among the swells of England has been formed to charter the Great Eastern, stock her with the world, the flesh and the devil, and come out on a two months' voyage to the World's fair at New Orleans.

The Popular Vote in 1880.

Garfield, Republican. 440,000
Hancock, Democrat. 442,000
Weaver, Greenback. 37,375
Scatterings. 13,079

Garfield's plurality over Hancock, 7,018. Opposition majority over Garfield, 312,864. Total vote, 9,210,970.

The Lexington Transcript in advocating free turnpikes, says that the payment of tolls operates as an embargo on the trade of a city, and at the same time reduces the income of the farmer. The Transcript thinks it would be far better to purchase the turnpikes, make them free and keep them in repair by a small tax levied upon the county for the purpose.

At Cincinnati, yesterday, there were no Deputy Marshals, no Deputy Sheriffs and very few policemen around the polls.

As a consequence there was scarcely any ill-feeling and little or no danger of disturbance. This goes to show that Deputy Marshals and Deputy Sheriffs were unnecessary at the polls in October. And it also very plainly demonstrated that bloody conflicts have only occurred where voting has been interfered with in this way. The outbreaks in South Carolina and other States were caused by conflicts of authority between the United States supervisor and State election officers.

The Tall Man Who Wouldn't Pay.

[Correspondence Syracuse Standard.]

On one occasion lately, a tall, well-dressed man with a military air, came into one of these museums, and after carefully looking at the various attractions was about to leave when he was approached by a bald-headed old gentleman, who asked him if he didn't want to have his head examined. The stranger had no objection, and was accordingly led into a small room directly over the museum. He took a seat and removed his hat. Two or three ill-favored bangers-on followed him into the den and seated themselves along the wall. The old gentleman placed his hands on the visitor's head and rapidly ran over a list of qualities he possessed.

"You are firm, quick-witted, and resolute," said the professor, as he felt the bumps back of the stranger's ears; "and you are possessed of more than usual acumen. You are a great man. You are a poet and a scholar. You never wrote poetry? Well, you were a second Shakespeare if you wanted to, and you never dreamed of it! See what a beautiful science ours is! You ought to have my book on phrenology."

"What is the price of the work?" asked the tall man.

"I charge every one else $10 for it, but I'll let you have one for $5," responded the professor.

"I guess I have none to-night," he replied. "What do you charge for the examination?"

"Five dollars."

"Too much; I'll not pay it," replied the stranger, as he rose from his chair and evaded the loaders, who had assumed attitudes of belligerence.

"Well, say $2.50."

"No, I'll not pay one cent, replied the tall man, "but if you will call at my address I'll see that you are paid for your services, and, handing the old gentleman a small calling card, he pushed his way out of the room."

The old man never called. The card read:

"CAPT. A. S. WILLIAMS, Twenty-ninth Police Precinct."

Ask your druggist for Willis' World-Worn Candy if you need such a remedy. It is pleasant and reliable. It contains no nauseating drugs, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

MT. OLIVET, November 5.—Powers' majority in this county is about 200.

A despatch received by the Republicans, this morning, from Lawrence County, states that ten precincts have been heard from and give Powers a majority of 57. There are twelve precincts in the county.

Special to DAILY BULLETIN.

CINCINNATI, November 5.—The indications are that Cleveland is elected. The latest news is the best. New York gives him 15,000 plurality. New Jersey is certainly Democratic. Adlai Connolly to the column. Mr. Hendricks says Indiana is safe. California bids the Democrats hope. Michigan gives seven sure for the fusionists. Boston gives Cleveland about

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE

FOR EVERY FORM OF SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASE, FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

I have had the Psoriasis for nine months. About five months ago I applied to a doctor near Boston, who believed me, but unfortunately I had to leave, but continued taking his medicine for nearly three months, but the disease did not leave. I saw Mr. Carpenter's letter in the Philadelphia Record, and he has perfectly described mine. I tried the Cuticura Remedies, using two bottles Resolvent, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap in proportion, and call myself completely cured.

F. R. HARRIS, Waterford, N. J.

REMARKS: TWENTY YEARS.

Cured.—Not cured after 20 years. Your Cuticura has done a wonderful cure for me more than two years ago. Not a sign of its reappearance since I cured out of it. I have been well since. I shall always speak well of Cuticura. I sell a great deal of it.

FRANK C. W. W. Druggist, Haverhill, Mass.

TEST FOR ANYTHING.

Having used your Cuticura Remedies for eighteen months for Itch, and finally cured it, I am anxious to get it in sell on commission. I can recommend it beyond and beyond. I have, ever used for Itch, Burns, Cuts, etc. It is the best to decline I have ever tried for anything.

R. S. HORTON, Myrtle, Miss.

ACROFULOUS SORES.

I had a drain bed sore upon my body, and it continued to increase in size, and at last tried your Cuticura Remedies and they have cured me.

J. M. GASKILL, Helton, Thayer County, Neb.

Every species of itching, scaly, pimply, scurfy, or lumpy skin disease, whether it be of the face or of the body, is cured by Cuticura. Cuticura Soap is the best for the face and body. Cuticura is the best for the face and body.

BEAUTY FOR CHAPPED AND OILY SKIN.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical suffering are added, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Frampton, of Huntington, W. Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of nervousness—that is, the leg, bone at the ankle was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been doctoring, but had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntington, who would treat me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying Cuticura, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Mr. Edgar Harte, Smelter P. O., Elk City, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also gave it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross streets, Elmira, Pa., writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied the different drug stores for one of your books, but they claim they have none on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your medicine, PERUNA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a simple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy."

Callista Fisher, Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PERUNA and MANALIN to any one who is afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very troublesome cough, but a few bottles of PERUNA entirely cured me."

I AM CURED.

...the vote of 1891 was: Garfield, 4,882; Hancock, 4,724; Weaver, 657.
Neal Dow, 181, and the gubernatorial vote
in 1892 was: Hale, R., 38,402; Edgerly, D., 35,914; scattering, 497. The campaign has been conducted with great vigor. The weather was cloudy and threatening, but a full vote was polled.

Florida.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 4.—The polls
opened at 8 o'clock. The weather was fair, which indicates a full vote. The principal features of the canvass have been a combination of Independent Democrats with Republicans on the State ticket. The campaign was very lively, especially in the Second District, where strong efforts have been made to beat Butler, Republican, the present representative.

Besides electing the full State ticket, Electors and Congressmen, the question of holding a Constitutional Convention will be voted on. The probabilities are that the Democrats will sweep everything. Comparison will be made on the State and National tickets with 1890, and on Congressmen with 1892.

Maryland.
BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—The election to-day
was for Electors and Members of Congress.
All four parties have electoral tickets in the field for the Congressional fight. The Fifth and Sixth Districts are the only ones considered doubtful, now represented by Republicans. In scuffling returns comparison was made, will be with this vote for Governor in 1888.

Delaware.
WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 4.—Presidential electors and a member of Congress will be chosen, together with a full county ticket in each of the three counties. The vote for President in 1890 was: Hancock, 35,975;
Garfield, 14,131; Weaver, 120. Charles B.
Love, the present Representative, is the Democratic candidate for Congress, and Anthony Higgins, the Republican.

New Jersey.
TRENTON, Nov. 4.—New Jersey to-day voted for Presidential Electors, seven Congressmen,
and a full Assembly and part of the State Senate. The State in 1890 gave Hancock a plurality of 5,610, as follows: Hancock, 122, 555; Garfield, 38,553; Weaver, G., 4,611; Love, F., 192. Comparisons on the vote today will be made with the above vote. The present delegation in Congress stands four Republicans and two Democrats.

Wisconsin.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—It rained steadily since midnight. A very large vote was thrown. The Germans voted and worked for Cleveland, indicating that Garfield's majority in Milwaukee of 3,000 will be reversed.
The Independent Republicans stood by Cleveland, and advised to the Journal from the northern part of the State that the Republicans, heretofore solidly Republican, worked for Cleveland. It is now evident the results in Wisconsin will be so close that it will hardly be possible to determine the result until Wednesday night.

CHAR. MITCHELL, colored, ravisher of Mrs.

to commit the crime. Mitchell and Waddell

A NEGRO'S DESPERATION

Is Resented by a Rioting Crowd of Mass Whites.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—A situation was caused at Marlville Monday. For some time there has been at that village a negro named Thomas DeForest, whose wife is a white woman. The negro has become increasingly as a result for the most depraved characters in that locality. Monday afternoon, when a crowd of boys gathered in front of the house and began pelting the front with stones and dirt, DeForest emerged in a towering rage and the boys ran. One of them, named Peter Sweeney, seven years old, was overaken and seized by DeForest, who boxed
the boy's ears until he howled for assistance.
A short distance away in the fields was a crowd of young men playing ball. They heard the boy's cries and saw that the colored man was apparently mistreating him.
Several of them started over to the yard, and one, named Patrick Green, ordered DeForest to let the boy go. DeForest warned Green to keep away. Green again commanded De-Forest to let the boy go, and advanced with the intention of enforcing his demand, when DeForest drew an old fashioned pistol and fired into Green's face. The weapon was charged with shot, some of which struck Green's face, while he was severely burned.

DeForest then brandished and started back to his house. A crowd of ball players came running to the scene and proceeded to DeForest's house with shouts of lynching.
They pounded the door with stones, burst open the door from his hinges, smashed in the windows and were about gaining an entrance when DeForest swung from the rear of the house unobserved. He was discovered some distance away and the mob started in pursuit,
and in the hope of eluding them he darted
into the basement of a building, but found the door locked, and then drawing his pistol stood at bay.

The first of the pursuers to arrive was John Clifford, aged eighteen years. He saw De-Forest beneath the stoop, and calling to his companions started down the two steps to seize him. The negro fired and the crowd took effect under the left eye, inflicting a terrible wound. Clifford fell to the pavement and the crowd fell back horror stricken.
DeForest then surrendered himself to Petrol-man McCann, who locked him up. Clifford and Green were both taken to the Swinburne Dispensary where their wounds were dressed by Doctors Paris and Bowen. Clifford's injuries are of a dangerous character. De-Forest was brought before Justice Clute and was committed to jail.

A BRUTAL HUSBAND.
John Murphy kills His Wife Because she was Tardy.

DENVER, Nov. 3.—John Murphy, proprietor of the "Exchange" saloon, and a well known sporting man, was arrested Monday afternoon charged with murdering his wife. Mrs. Murphy died early Monday morning from injuries, so it is alleged, received at her husband's hands the night before.

Murphy went home at 4 o'clock in the morning and his wife being a little tardy in opening the door for him gave her a beating and pitched her across his bed, through a window. He afterwards picked her up and took her into the house. Monday morning a physician was summoned and pronounced her suffering from internal hemorrhage. She made an ante-mortem statement, giving the details of her husband's treatment of her.
The Coroner will hold an inquest to-day. An autopsy confirms the theory that death was the result of violence.
